The Wright B Flyer Museum is a proud member of the National Aviation Heritage Alliance, a private, not for profit corporation designated by Congress as a management entity of the Heritage Area. The organization seeks to conserve, interpret, develop, and promote the historic resources of the National Aviation Heritage Area. The Alliance's board of trustees is an all-volunteer group of individuals with additional liaison/advisors from the National Park Service and other government organizations. The vision of the Alliance is to make the Dayton region the recognized global center of aviation heritage and premier destination for aviation heritage tourism, sustaining the legacy of the Wright brothers. The National Aviation Heritage Area encompasses an eight-county area in Ohio (Montgomery, Greene, Miami, Clark, Warren, Champaign, Shelby, and Auglaize counties.)

Our Display at the Dayton Airshow

"Are we doing runway hops today."

We won the President's Award at the Centerville Americana
Parade

We participated in an Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA) photo shoot and pilot interviews in preparation for an article that will be published in the "AOPA Pilot Magazine" later this year.

Take a look at the photo and see the AOPA's Cessna 180 to the left taking photos of our Whitebird. The lake in the picture is Ceaser's Creek.

Look what is inside.
"THE WHITEBIRD." It was shipped by truck in this container to Oshkosh for a static display at the annual EAA AirVenture.
Thanks to all our volunteers for all their hard work.

Be sure to see the Fall Newsletter for a full report regarding our participation at the
